PROFILE

David has a well-established practice in the field of property law. He has undertaken work for the State and Federal Governments, the Registrar of Titles and the ANZ Bank.

He now has close to 45 years' experience in property law, about a third of them as a solicitor. He has been a member of the Property Committee of the Law Institute of Victoria for over 20 years and has spoken at numerous seminars organised by the Law Institute of Victoria and the Leo Cussen Institute, amongst others. He has written many articles for the Law Institute Journal and has been an author of the Contract of sale of land co-published by the Law Institute of Victoria and the Real Estate Institute of Victoria since 2008.

David and William Rimmer are the authors of Sale of Land Act Victoria, published by Thompson Reuters in October 2015 and Victorian Land Contracts, published by Thompson Reuters in July 2020. They are currently writing the second edition of Sale of Land Act Victoria with a view to publication in late 2023, and a new work on the Transfer of Land Act 1958 in conjunction with Robert Hay KC. In addition, David is engaged in writing his own work on the Property Law Act 1958.
