PROFILE

Khai-Yin specialises in tax and revenue law as an advocate and adviser appearing in Commonwealth and State courts and tribunals.

She is frequently briefed to advise and appear in tax, trusts and commercial matters at Commonwealth and State courts and tribunals.

Khai-Yin acts for companies, trusts, high net-worth individuals, SMEs and the Commissioner of Taxation in income tax and indirect taxes.

Her briefs frequently involve property transfers, objections to assessments, remission of penalties, duty exemptions, CGT small business concessions, responses to position papers, Australian Taxation Office reviews/audits, State Revenue Office investigations, director duties and penalties, trustee duties and powers, effective disclaimers, trust resettlement/vesting/terminations, share value shifting, commercial debt forgiveness, deceased estates, CGT life interests, testamentary trusts and charitable trusts.

Khai-Yin holds a Master of Taxation from the University of Melbourne, and is a Chartered Tax Adviser and Fellow of the Tax Institute of Australia.

Before coming to the Bar, Khai-Yin practised as a tax and commercial solicitor at Herbert Geer and Rigby Cooke, and prior to that as a corporate and international tax consultant at Andersen.
