EXPERTISE

Criminal Law | Inquests, Inquiries, Tribunals & Commissions | Public Law & Administrative Law

PROFILE

Stephanie accepts briefs in all areas of criminal law and quasi-criminal law, including administrative and regulatory matters. She is an experienced criminal advocate and accepts briefs in metropolitan and regional Courts. She has appeared for clients in a range of contested hearings in both the Magistrates' Court and County Court.

Stephanie has prepared and instructed in a range of criminal defence matters, including complex cases for clients charged with murder, culpable driving, sexual offences, violent offences, drug trafficking/importation and property offences. This has included both state and Commonwealth offences.

Stephanie has a strong interest in post-sentence applications and reviews, including Supervision Order proceedings and Crimes (Mental Impairment) hearings. Stephanie also accepts briefs in coronial inquests, OH&S matters and other quasi-criminal work, including council prosecutions and other disciplinary and regulatory tribunal work.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Stephanie worked as a Senior Lawyer at Victoria Legal Aid (VLA) in the Indictable Crime Team, which included regular appearances as a solicitor advocate. Stephanie began her career as a solicitor at the Office of Public Prosecutions. There, she gained experience in a broad range of indictable matters and developed specialised knowledge in sexual offences.

Stephanie graduated from the Australian National University in 2011 with a Bachelor of Laws with first class honours and a Bachelor of Arts.

Stephanie is reading with Georgina Coghlan and her senior mentor is Julian McMahon AC SC.
