PROFILE

Tom practices in public law, common law, and general commercial litigation. He has particular interests in class actions and insurance, and in Commonwealth constitutional and administrative law (including migration and veterans' entitlements).

Before coming to the Bar in 2012, Tom practiced as a solicitor; he was also the Associate to the Hon D M Ryan QC, then a judge of the Federal Court.

He read with Lachlan Armstrong QC and his senior mentor was Richard Niall QC SG (as his Honour then was).
